

Miss Betty's StrongStart

At Devereaux & McLeod

Hello! Howdy! Hi! Greetings! Welcome!

An exciting time for Miss Betty's StrongStart at Devereaux & McLeod it's a new year, new facilitator... let's explore the what, who, where, when, why and how of the program.

What is StrongStart?

StrongStart is a FREE program for parents or caregivers with babies, toddlers and preschool children. This program is designed to work in partnership with parents/caregivers, their children, an Early Childhood Educator, and community partners.

The StrongStart program incorporates family-centered practices for families with children birth to five. It is recognized that early learning enrichment can significantly optimize developmental potential.

Who is Miss Betty?

Miss Betty is an Early Childhood Educator with tons of preschool experience, ability to provide exceptional multiage activities and adheres to the Positive Discipline principals. Her favorite experiences are hearing the giggles and seeing the wiggles while children learn through play. Miss Betty is super excited to be the facilitator for the Devereaux & McLeod StrongStart Outreach Programs.
