Update Regarding Consultation on New Secondary School

Planning for a new secondary school in Tumbler Ridge is moving forward, with the Ministry of Infrastructure and Peace River South School District 59 preparing to hear from students, families, school staff, and other stakeholders about what matters most as the project advances. This consultation will take place during the week of November 16th, 2026. In addition, Urban Systems has been hired to help with the consultation. They will work with Safer Schools Together to make sure we are gathering input in a safe, trauma-informed environment.

While there are still important decisions ahead about how the new school will be designed and delivered, the School District has already heard clearly about what is important to preserve and enhance. Based on this feedback, we already know the new school will include a gymnasium appropriately sized to meet the needs of the school and broader community. The School District has also heard how important trades education is to students and the community, and the new school will provide a trades workshop that offers the same or better functionality and learning opportunities for students.

Two approaches are being explored for the design and construction of the new school: modular or prefabricated construction and traditional site-built construction. Conceptual designs and other visual information will be shared during the upcoming consultation sessions to help participants understand what each approach could look like and consider how the future school could best support learning, student and staff wellbeing, safety, community needs and the transition to a permanent school.

Beginning the week of November 16, focused engagement sessions will be held with people closely connected to the school and its future. Opportunities will be tailored for students, parents and caregivers, educators, school administration and other community representatives. Invitations and additional information about how to participate will be shared in the coming days.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Success Relationships Culture

All Indigenous students need to believe they can be successful, proud, confident, independent, fully involved learners. This is achieved with a strong sense of belonging, respectful mutual relationships where Indigenous ways of being and doing are deeply embedded into daily curriculum. This ensures the opportunity to graduate with a sense of purpose, dignity and options.

Educators will uphold high expectations in the areas of attendance, academics, social and career development.

The values and cultural beliefs of Indigenous students and their families need to be understood, respected, valued and shared. This understanding will provide the conditions that will lead to success.

We can engage each student by having them participate in planning their learning through a grade or graduation goal setting process that provides educators with information they can include in the student's classroom experience. The graduation coach mission is to ensure successful transitions; provide comprehensive intervention or prevention and ensure students receive timely resources they need to be successful.

We can engage educators by having them participate in creating classroom instructional plans through a collaboration process with a focus on Indigenous student achievement. The classroom profiles drive the instructional plan using a Response to Intervention (RTI) approach that links student goals. This collaborative planning lends itself to a high expectation of respect and acceptance of individual student strengths and learning needs.

Collaboration between teachers with a focus on the needs of Indigenous learners impacts both Indigenous student achievement and a positive culture in the classroom. While simultaneously engaging Indigenous students in grade and grad coaching while giving students the power to choose their pathways, provides lifelong skills and knowledge on cause/effect while emphasizing the outcomes and consequences of their choices.

This is our fifth Enhancement Agreement. Since our last Indigenous Education Enhancement Agreement (IEEA) in 2021, we continue to use a Relationship Based Learning context that is enhancing the system, and school capacities that leads to improved achievement for Indigenous students. SD 59 collects Indigenous student achievement using a variety of data sources including alphabet knowledge, phonological skills, reading levels, numeracy data, Foundational Skills Assessment results, report cards, transition rates and graduation rates.

For the purpose of this agreement, this is a summary of success, relationships and culture defined by the Indigenous Education Advisory Council and The Dawson Creek Indigenous Education Partnership Advisory Council.

1. PREAMBLE

We would like to acknowledge that School District No. 59 resides on Treaty 8 Territory.

The Indigenous communities of School District No. 59 (Peace River South) represented by members of the Indigenous Education Council and the Indigenous Education Partnership Advisory Council guide and approve the development and implementation of this Indigenous Education Enhancement Agreement. Through a year-long consultation process with both councils, the vision and spirit of this agreement is to improve the educational performance and sense of belonging for each Indigenous learner within the school district's jurisdiction. Please note, the Local Education Agreement (LEA) supersedes the Indigenous Education Enhancement Agreement.

School District No. 59 (Peace River South) recognizes and honours the historical and critical importance Indigenous peoples place on understanding the value of their history and culture. We also recognize that culture is not static, it continually changes. Further we recognize the importance of Indigenous people feeling pride in who they are, feeling accepted, valued and understood. Indigenous learners and family members feel a need to see their world represented in classrooms throughout the district. Indigenous learners are unique, as each differs in learning styles, beliefs, customs, traditions, political views, and cultural backgrounds. Being Indigenous does not entirely define the student.

School District No. 59 (Peace River South) supports the Indigenous communities' commitment to the achievement of their learners and the desire to receive educational benefits to fulfill personal and professional goals. In addition, this Indigenous Education Enhancement Agreement acknowledges and honours the vital role played by First Nations, school representatives and agencies, who bring forward the interests and needs of Indigenous students and families.

School District No. 59 (Peace River South) and the Indigenous communities acknowledge the collective responsibility for the success of each Indigenous learner. With the guidance from the Indigenous Education Advisory Council and Indigenous Education Partnership Advisory Council, School District No. 59 (Peace River South) will maintain a close working relationship with the Indigenous community. Recommendations from the Council and from individual student data information collected will result in a process whereby student success is measured and improved over the time frame of this agreement.

In respect and honour of all Indigenous peoples, we intend, with their participation, guidance and wisdom, to keep the success of each Indigenous learner a priority.

Definition: for the purposes of this Agreement the term "Indigenous" includes
First Nations (Status and Non-Status), Métis and Inuit.

2. PURPOSES

The purposes of the Indigenous Education Enhancement Agreement are:

- To improve the overall academic achievement of each Indigenous student.
- To ensure each Indigenous student has the best possible opportunity to graduate with a sense of purpose, dignity and options.
- To affirm that each student feels respected, understood, accepted and valued.
- To build strong relationships and improve communication between all stakeholders.

- Tracked with integrity and authenticity.
- Tracked over time.
- Used to guide the design and implementation of effective teaching strategies.
- Used to monitor the culture of school community and the impact on Indigenous students.

Goals

- Secondary schools to maintain a culturally safe and welcoming space for Indigenous students (Welcome Room).

Goal 3: Connect Indigenous students to rich, meaningful learning opportunities that empower them to discover and pursue their talents, passions, and aspirations leading to improved academic success.

Intended Strategies and Measurable Indicators:

Rationale:

We believe by building positive relationships with students, educators can identify and connect students to their interests.

We believe the Relationship Based Learning framework (RBL), using a strength-based approach, classroom profiles and the goal setting process will enable students and teachers to identify and use student strengths to create action plans that promote academic success and strengthen social emotional growth.

Measurable indicators:

- Classroom profiles developed focusing on Indigenous student learning needs, interests and strengths
- Classroom profiles that drive instructional plans using research-based practices
- Track number of teachers who participate in classroom profiles
- Individual student goal setting data
- Report card data
- District data-literacy and numeracy
- Provincial data-FSA and Highschool literacy and numeracy assessment
- Office referrals/suspensions data
- Track number of students who attend career and post-secondary fairs, visit Northern Lights College, dual credit presentations
- Track number of students entering dual credit
- Track number of students applying for post-secondary

Menu of Strategies

- High schools participate in career fairs and dual credit presentations.
- Maintain Indigenous student achievement awards and celebrations.
- Coach Mentor to support teachers in incorporating RBL and Visible Learning strategies.
- Indigenous Education support staff will provide a variety of literacy and numeracy interventions for identified K-3 Indigenous students who are not yet meeting literacy and numeracy expectations.
- Elementary Indigenous Education Assistants will receive ongoing training in literacy and numeracy interventions and culturally responsive strategies.
- Work in collaboration with the District to improve numeracy.

- Investigate why students disengage or if they moved out of district.
- Classroom profiles, grade and grad coaching and goal setting
- Ongoing/monthly coach mentor learning and sharing opportunities.
- Scholarships and opportunities (ex. Bold Eagle, Verna Kirkness) are clearly explained to students and support is given if needed for applying.

Agenda Item: Don Titus Montessori Mural Request

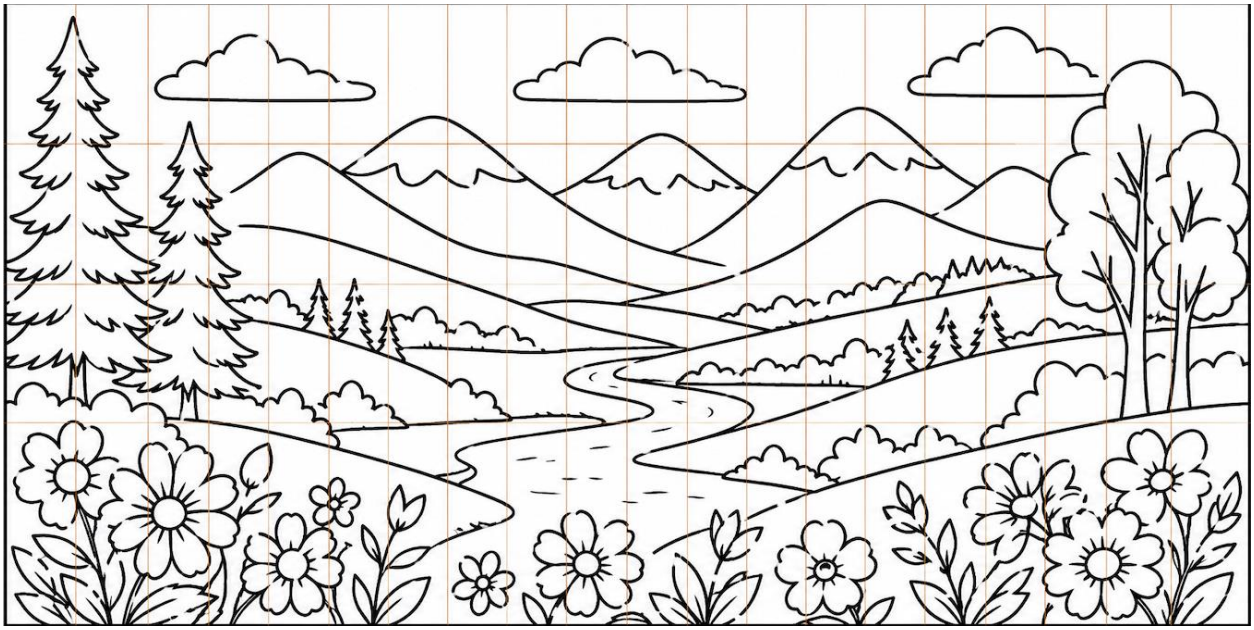

The Principal at Don Titus Montessori is requesting approval for a mural students will paint as a part of a school-wide project. The project will be financially supported by the Parent Advisory Council. The mural will be painted on high quality vinyl, similarly to the murals already in place on the exterior of the building.

The mural will be a collage of student artwork, where students will take responsibility for a section of the mural. This project is intended to be collaborative, offering students time to work with one another practicing within the Core Competencies. Elements of Communication, Thinking, and Personal and Social competencies will be a focus in connection with the hands-on work students will engage as they complete their parts of the mural.

The mural is being proposed to be mounted on an exterior wall, by the second the entrance located at the front of the building, once used by Strongstart (the wall indicted by the yellow star below).

Sample sketch of the proposed mural:

Recommendation:

THAT, the Board approve Don Titus Montessori to proceed with planning the wall mural as presented;

WHEREAS, the planning must follow the process as established in Policy 6060.

RE: Funding and Enrolment Update

Purpose

To provide a financial update following the report to the Board of Education on the September 2026 student enrolment counts, as a process step to the AMENDED budget due early 2027.

Appendix

Page 3 Financial Comparison (Prior Year, PROJECTED, and ESTIMATED AMENDED)

See also the enrolment update report provided to the Board of Education on October 17, 2026, available on-line in the public agenda.

Background

The information provided represents an estimate of revenues based on revised enrolments, including regular student enrolments, students with designations (level 1, 2 and 3), students who are assessed as English Language Learners (ELL), and self-identified Indigenous students.

All data is estimated, and subject to the preliminary funding profile expected from the BC Government in December 2026. Dollars unchanged from the spring projected budget are estimated to be unchanged or are subject to provincial calculations.

Information provided is also focused on the operating grants provided by the BC Government. Other grants, such as pay equity, labour settlement, grants supporting specific programming, and special purpose funding (funding provided and restricted) are not included here and will be provided later in the AMENDED budget process.

School districts in British Columbia typically have two official budgets. The budget developed and approved in the spring is due to the BC Government no later than June 30 for each year. The AMENDED budget is based on actual student enrolment and actual projected enrolment, and represents a more accurate budget: the amended budget is due February following the start of the school year.

Considerations

Enrolment-Based Funding

As shared with the Board of Education on October 17, 2026, enrolment is higher than projected, providing a positive variance on the "Standard (Regular) Schools" funding (per student funding) of $566,259. We are projecting lower enrolment than projected for our distributive learning ("Online Learning") resulting in a slight reduction in funding of $52,780.

Offsetting the increase in student enrolment funding is the decrease in "Enrolment Decline" funding that was projected, with a net decline in this funding of $306,443. "Enrolment Decline" funding is provided to school districts experiencing an enrolment decline greater than 1%.

Between the increase in "Enrolment-Based" funding and decrease in "Enrolment Decline" is a net increase of $208,286. The increase noted is tentatively identified to have been committed to schools through our allocation (more students represent more dollars to schools) to support the increase in teaching staff.

Classroom Enhancement Funding

Supplementing the "Enrolment-Based" funding is classroom enhancement funding (CEF). As this is a special purpose fund these dollars are not shared here and will be shared later in the amended budget process. Tentatively, the increase in funding from the BC Government will allow for an additional two (2.0) full-time equivalent teachers from the spring projection. The Board of Education was updated in the spring during the projected budget process that leadership has requested higher classroom enhancement teachers than in prior years from the BC Government based on information provided and a collaborative approach with education leadership to understand complex needs. The total classroom (enrolment-based) teachers submitted for funding in October 2026 is 19.939 FTE. Should the CEF classroom teachers not be fully supported, dollars would be expected to be drawn from reserves (contingency) for 2026-27.

Unique Student Needs

Funding for students with unique needs will increase by $387,245. The increased dollars have been allocated to provide educational assistant supports for students (in the case of designated students and ELL), or to our Indigenous Learner program in the case of self-identified students.

Summary

As noted in the information provided, the increase in funding has been committed to classroom supports including teaching staff and educational assistant staffing, in accordance with our allocation framework. CEF funding is expected to be higher than projected by 2.0 FTE teachers.

Recommendation

Submitted for the Board of Education's information.
