

DAWSON CREEK SECONDARY SOUTH PEACE

JANUARY NEWSLETTER

Semester 1/Term 2 Report Cards: Students will be given report cards to take home February 16-17. Please know you can check student grades on Peacenet. Semester 2 began Feb. 6. Term 3 Interim Reports March 3-7.

SP Basketball

South Peace Basketball is winding down the season. The Senior Girls team are finishing the season next week. The boys have a Junior and Senior team -- Senior Boys off to Zones in PG on Feb. 23rd. Watch for games and results on social media.

Celebrate a Student

DCSS South Peace would like to acknowledge the work of Damean Perrin, selected to be a participant in the BC Minister of Education's Youth Dialogue Series on Social Justice. Great work Damean!

DCSS SP Careers

We had an impressive turnout to our Parent/Guardian Info Session at NLC this January! Due to interest, we are planning another event this Spring. Stay tuned for more info!

Important Dates

- Feb 06: Start of Semester 2
- Semester 1 Report Cards Feb 16-17
- Course Selection Parent Info Night: Feb. 16th @ 6:00 pm

DCSS SP Student Council

South Peace is bringing back Student Council. Students have signed up to become part of the Student Council Steering Committee to finish work on the Student Council Constitution. After the Constitution is agreed upon and ratified, we will initiate a process to [s]elect a Student Council that will prepare the way for the remainder of the year and set up elections for next year.

Penguin Periodical Released -- Next Edition March 2023

DCSS South Peace's arts and culture magazine released its Winter Edition in December. Students are producing work and submitting their pieces into the student editorial board. Next edition (Spring) is planned for March!

Student Voice Starts in February

Student Voice, a platform for students to collaborate, reflect, establish shared values, and build a legacy for a better school community has started this February. Stay tuned for upcoming initiatives.

DCSS SP Grad Committee Meeting

In January, the Grad Committee met with DCSS SP Admin to communicate and collaborate on some planning for Graduation 2023. Stay tuned for more info being communicated from the school!